NOVEMBER 18, 2008 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 70 NO. 7

THIS TUESDAY

We go to the Bahooka Restaurant. Never mind what Steve Montesanti told you the program was going to be Tuesday. We continue with the Toastmasters Hit Parade, Carlos Guerra will speak on "Treasures of the Heart". Passing on lessons for living to the younger generation. I wonder if Steve told him our age demographics?

LAST TUESDAY

Roger Carlson has been a technical writer at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory since the days of Voyager in the late 1970's. His first love is energy and society. He supported solar research for the Encyclopedia of Global Warming.

Roger's topic was "Every Energy Bit Helps", he said that solar and wind seem to be a hobby for Southern California Edison.

I must admit Roger's talk was the Toastmasters version which explains why most of it went way over my head. If you really want to know about energy I suggest you talk to Mr. Happy #1,2, or 3.

We have a new paper in town. Temple City Tribune will be published each Monday with our Kiwanis ad printed for free as space allows. Also they will be printing our Students of the Month.

Steve Tyre spoke of attending the graduation ceremonies of Marines at MCRD near San Diego. Dan Snell also had the pleasure when his grandson graduated. Steve also declared his appreciation of our Armed Services by offering to prepare the tax returns for any active or retired military personnel. Way to go Steve!!!

Membership chairman Dan Snell was underwhelmed by the number of prospective members names given to him.

Steve Montesanti brought "Guest of the Club" Willy Wei. Willy is a New York Life Insurance agent and is also involved in real estate.

Bob Tyler paid for his birthday. John and Barbara Gera went on a cruise of the Chesapeake Bay on the East Coast. The ship only had 80 passengers.

The following is for those of you who receive this bulletin by mail. The Feds' are laying off 40,000 postal workers. They give billions in bailouts and layoff their own employees, what's wrong here?

OTHER HAPPENINGS

John Chandler is in charge of Sock-o-Rama for our Kiwanis Club, The Foothill Unity Center will distribute the items to needy people in our community. John would like you to bring your donations to the next Kiwanis meeting. They are requesting new adult or children's white socks, t-shirts or boxer shorts. May's Department Store in Arcadia has the items needed. They are at 114 E Live Oak Ave. You can also give $7-10 to John and he will make the purchase for you.

KIWANIS KALANDAR

November 25 - Rose Sheldon from Rose Hills will speak on pre-planning

QUOTE OF THE WEEK
