DECEMBER 23, 2008 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 70 NO. 12

THIS TUESDAY

It's 2 days before Christmas and all through the Bahooka, there wasn't even a mouse. Suddenly there was a clatter, and who should appear? none other than old Saint Nick. You are invited to see what the "Amalgamated Real Bearded Santa's" are all about.

We will be receiving an extra "tip" for our servers at the Bahooka this Tuesday.

LAST TUESDAY

Our yearly Christmas extravaganza was extra special this year or several reasons. We had the event at a larger venue, we included the Temple City Senior group. The Maryvale group was larger this year, and the foresight of our President Chuck to make this happen.

Thanks to the City, Cathy Burroughs, Parks and Recreation Commission for waiving the fees normally associated with using the Community Center at Live Oak Park.

Thanks to all who gave of their time and talents in decorating the room, John and Sue Chandler and MC Steve and Lisa Montesanti for an outstanding job. Also to Jim Robuck for taking care of the ice cream soft serve machine. From what I could see it was a big hit with young and old.

And of course our thanks goes to the best Santa there ever was who diligently listened to all the request of the Maryvale girls. Susie Starr made a big hit with young and young at heart with her cast of characters.

A free-will offering was taken to help the Ortiz family of Temple City who lost almost everything with a fire that started in their kitchen at 5 in the morning. Several hundred dollars was raised that will help begin buying new items for their children. Your Editor is accompanying the family for a Wal-Mart shopping spree Friday evening.

Upon leaving the Community Center a senior was very complimentary about the luncheon and program. Also, they mentioned how much they appreciated the opportunity to be included in the event.

John and Barbara Gera were gracious hosts as they opened their home for our Annual Club Christmas Dinner. A great dinner was catered by Wood Ranch Barbecue.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

We honored two outstanding students from Independent Study at the Dr. Doug Sears Learning Center. Accompanying the students were teachers Mr. Andrew Jahan and Mrs. Yvonne Rivera. New Principal Stephen Edo also was in attendance.

Ian O'Connor is in Mr. Jahan's class and enjoys writing books, doodling, creating board games, experiments and inventions. Ian said, "The best things about school are I have the best teachers, my work is fun, challenging and interesting, and I like the books." Personal goals are be more productive and helpful in the house, finish his new book by the time he is 16 and publish it, and play less video games.

Diego DeLaTorre is in Mrs. Rivera's class and enjoys playing the guitar and drums. Diego said, "The best things about school are my friends, the education I receive, and preparation for life". The best things that ever happened was being accepted to Cal State Monterey Bay. If he could change one thing it would be to have done a lot better in high school. Personal goals are to have a better economy, get into all the colleges he applied to, get his drivers license, and get a job.

SOCK-O-RAMA

John Chandler reported that our club gave 100% participation to the Sock-O-Rama drive with over 247 items (a pair of sox is one item) to the Temple City Recreation Department. The items that we donated were given to the Foothill Unity Center, Friends In Deed, and Los Angeles Ambulatory Care Center. Last year we gave 53 items. Wow! That's about a 500% increase. Thanks to all who participated.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"The man who says he is willing to meet you halfway is usually a poor judge of distance."
- Laurence J. Peter

See you Tuesday and Merry Christmas, Jerry
